

I Can't Go On Like This

BBMak

Just when I thought we were going somewhere,
Why did you go?
You said, you needed some time on your own,
Now I'm alone,
Can't you see, it's true,
That you had your chance, I've been waiting for you

I can't go on like this,
No longer can I resist,
I'm getting stronger, days getting longer,
And I feel like it's going nowhere,
Coz I can't go on like this

Tell me, what did I do that was wrong?
I wanna know, oh,
Slowly, as though are drifting apart,
We didn't know,
Can't you see, it's true,
That you had your chance, I've been waiting for you

When I gave my heart to you,
You can't deny that you said you loved me,
What else can we do?
Can't you see?
It was never meant to be...oh no...
