

From There to Back Again

Beach Boys

Why don't you, run away
And spend some time without me
On this summer day
There's nowhere else I'd rather be
Why don't we feel the way we used to Anymore
There's a place we love the way
That maybe we could stay
Listen to the waves at my front door
You've been thinking bout some things
We used to do
Thinking bout while life was still in front of you
Back where you belong, our favorite song
Won't you listen?

Don't you understand the words
Are singing in the wind
I wish that we could get through that

And back again
The clouds are breaking it's a beautiful day
Whao, wonderful, as if it comes a getaway
Sun is shining, could we just find a way
If you'd just fall, just fall, just fall
To the love

Through the compromised paradise
It's just another place upon the wall
Through the common change of it all
We had a lot to live, we gave it all
Through the consequence, of the war
Another place in time
Pa ra ra, pa da pa pa ra ra
Pa pa pa pa pa ra ra ra
Pa pa pa pa ra ra ra ra.
