Beach House

D.A.R.L.I.N.G.

Where did you come from You're no stranger How I know you will return so I won't be sad D.A.R.-L.I.N. G -

In that harbor of a room you'll find your anchor soon in the parting of our ways may it never happen any way

In the highest blackened moon there'd be more life in the right shade of our sighs, Death!, be gone!
D.A.R.-L.I-N.G.-..

In that harbor of a room you'll find your anchor soon in the parting of our ways may it never happen anyway...

All of your charms couldn't keep you from...
