

Used to Be

Beach House

You are coming home*
Are you still alone
Are you not the same as you used to be

You are coming home
Are you still alone
Are you not the same as you used to be

As the sun grows high
And you serve your time
Does each day just feel like another lie

Now you know
Is it just for show
Just a foolish game that you hide behind

Don't forget the nights
When it all felt right
Are you not the same as you used to be
Used to be

In an endless night
Could you feel the fright
Of an age that was and could never be

We hold it close
When we feel the most
Like a love that we could not leave behind

Turn the wheel
To which way we feel
Till I'm lost and knock and not find you there

Don't forget the nights
When it all felt right
Are you not the same as you used to be
Used to be

Even if I tried so hard
Would we still be coming to an end
Even if we spoke the same words
Would we still be termed as friends

Even if its simple from the start
(We could stay until the summer)
We will give the pieces of our hearts
(See what happens to the other)
And when there is nothing left to pretend
(We could stay inside all summer)
We will now its coming to an end
(See what happens to the other)

Even if we tried so hard
(We could wait until the summer)
We will give the pieces of our hearts
(See what happens to the other)
It's always good to see you again

(We could stay inside all summer)
Even if its come to an end
(See what happens to the other)

We could wait until the summer
See what happens to the other
We could stay inside all summer
See what happens to the other

'Coming home any day now'
'Coming home any day now'
'Coming home any day now'
'Coming home any day now'
'Coming home any day now'
