

Tarnished Gold

Beachwood Sparks

...carrying the harm in heart
So I open up my heart, I let it in
Uh, uh let it in!
So I lay my body down, a few parts
Burning it up and flames grew high
Uh, uh, what remains

Chorus:

Funny how when you fond what you're looking for
It was already there
I don't know why the simple things hide...
That was and always has been you!
Fell in love with the tarnished gold
That's what remains when the ashes turn cold
Uh, uh, tarnished gold!

Chorus:

Funny how when you fond what you're looking for
It was already there
I don't know why the simple things hide...
That was and always has been you!
Don't cry, the choice of remembering
What you have always been?
