

Julien, where are you?
Donkey donkey-boys
Are sold for fifty at the market

Buy my boy buy my boy away
Ride my boy, said ride my boy away

His hoof's on the table
He just might be able
And I just live one stable away
And love works like money
Like all work is funny
It's funnier when you're not named

Julien, where are you?
Donkey donkey-boys
Are sold for fifty at the market
Julien, where are you?
Donkey donkey-boys
Are sold for fifty at the market

Buy my boy buy my boy away
Ride my boy, said ride my boy away

His hoof's on the table
He just might be able
I just live one stable away
