Beardfish

My skin's no shelter
"emoticons" lie and I'm exposed but my tears are all out dry eyes always hurt the most I can lead my life Coz there's no love, no love left here
master of disguise
I've been in your sky and you weren't there

A motorcycle man
And Jesus was his name
He's out on his ride Believe and never die

his appearance is said to have made him live a life of shame, but pockets of humanity made them embrace the long haired man and I envy them... but I wont follow rules made up thousands of years ago and changed by hands of men according to some current trend

Leave here while you can
Or answer to the man
You know he's everywhere
Isn't that a scare...

I know that I can't change and you're faith is blind so you can't see I know that things are never gonna change
I know that things are bound to stay the same
I know that things are never gonna change
and it will never change
and it will never change
and it will never change

This eternal night is mine feeble thoughts will feed the langoliers mammals of the pyramids goblins of our clouded past, medieval times are back again killing in the name of god, killing to preserve our precious peace

I can waste my life there's no love, no love left here
master of disguise
I've been in your sky and you weren't there

Or answer to the man
You know he's everywhere
Isn't that a scare...

This forsaken path is mine
But my philosophy is yours to see I'm not evil, I'm just being me

Winds may change, yet always blow - No one knows which way they'll go Crucify or be crucified, let's give understanding one more try

This eternal night is mine.....

See how they dance in the moonlight forming in preparation of war someone's laughing in the shadows something is making them dance...

"Step right on up, folks!

This here is religious warfare and it's what's gonna kill us all..."
