

Who knew bliss was such a risk all the thoughts I have i'm too scared to express unless they're gonna fit the mold of some critical prick

Stay away decay before I go insane
just stay away decay before
I lose my mind today

I won't turn and look away
When it's all you wanna see
No one's ever gonna censor me
You're the coward you're the thief
And that's all you'll ever be
No one's ever gonna censor me

I'm insane I know i'm sick I have a twisted mind but I learn to live with this viciousness and I think i'm loving every second of it

Stay away decay before I go insane
just stay away decay before
I lose my mind today

I won't turn and look away
When it's all you wanna see
No one's ever gonna censor me
You're the coward you're the thief
And that's all you'll ever be
No one's ever gonna censor me

Are these metaphors too much of a risk Well this spit on my lips is venomous piss
I hope it leaves your brain burning for hours Now turn your moaning down crank this music up louder

Crank this music up louder

I won't turn and look away
When it's all you wanna see
No one's ever gonna censor me
You're the coward you're the thief
And that's all you'll ever be
No one's ever gonna censor me
