

Loser

Beartooth

I've always been a fan of the night life, cause it's the only life I had.

Expressing my mind with paper and a pen playing my guitar till my fingers bled on the carpet

Maybe I wasn't like all the normal kids. I was born just a little bit different.

I tried to fit in I got sick of it

You say I'm just a loser in the background. I can never seem to get it right

But I'm learning my worth is more than your word.

You told me I would back out, I would break down, I'm not even putting up a fight.

But I'm learning my worth is more than your word.

It wasn't easy being rejected by the thing I wanted so bad.

To be excepted, to be wanted, to wake up and say this is gonna be a good day.

Maybe I wasn't like all the normal kids, I was born just a little bit different.

I tried to fit in I got sick of it.

You say I'm just a loser in the background, I can never seem to get it right

But I'm learning my worth is more than your word.

You told me I would back out, I would break down, I'm not even putting up a fight.

But I'm learning my worth is more than your word.

I was born a little bit different

You say I'm just a loser in the background. I can never seem to get it right

But I'm learning my worth is more than your word.

You told me I would back out, I would break down, I'm not even putting up a fight.

But I'm learning my worth is more than your word.

I got sick of it

I tried to fit in I got sick of it
