

Super Ko Rider

BEAT CRUSADERS

I don't know reasons why you cry
I don't know reasons why you hide

Fight the nightmare
Forget the nightmare
Baby, your call's close to my heart
Maybe we're someday
Dreaming the night away

We don't need to escape
We all need the sunshine to believe
We don't need to escape
We all need the sunshine to believe

I don't know reasons why you cry
I don't know reasons why you hide

Fight the nightmare
Forget the nightmare
Baby, your call's close to my heart
Maybe we're someday
Dreaming the night away

We don't need to escape
We all need the sunshine to believe
We don't need to escape
We all need the sunshine to believe

Don't go falling down
Nothing fears you anymore
Don't go going down
Nothing's gonna fear you anymore again

We don't need to escape
We all need the sunshine to believe
We don't need to escape
We all need the sunshine to believe
We don't need to escape
