Beatsteaks

I wanna do a million things and some of them tonight I wanna be a million places I guess I'm looking for a light I'm gonna lose my head I'm going down I'm gonna lose the man I am nothing remains I speak against the wall nothing comes back at all no feedback anywhere and nobody's there if I waited a bit too long it's hard for me to change I grab everything I can that's all and when it matters then I'm blind nothing is alright I only see what I wanna see it breaks me up again tonight.
