I'm taking my time - no need to rewind
It's starting out to be just fine
I crack a smile but act unkind
advertising bigger times

Feed my EGO
watch it grow and grow
Get you off my tracks
If you hit the sack
Let it swing back

From the mind to the record from the soul to the throat From the heart to the matter from the head to the toes I've been hanging on the edge I've been waiting on a friend Among the lost and found

Dash down to the bar to go insane I'll drench this city with your name Guess we hit the promised land We were out but now we're in

Feed my E-G-O watch it grow and grow Get you off my tracks E-G-O If you hit the sack Let it swing back

Kiss me, squeeze me, bite me, strike me Use me, soothe me, hold me tightly Take me, break me, feel me, steal me Tap me, wrap me, and fly me to the moon

I feel high as a knight on top of the world

From the mind to the record from the soul to the throat From the heart to the matter from the head to the toes I've been hanging on the edge I've been waiting on a friend Among the lost and found

I'm taking my time - no need to rewind
It's starting out to be just fine
I crack a smile but act unkind
advertising bigger times

I feel high as a knight on top of the world
