I think you make yourself a victim There's nothing good enough there's only one colour deep grey and a bitter taste you don't know what's there if you don't try. Shut up stand up. You drive me up the wall I heard it all before I quit this conversation you don't let your feelings show I don't know what you got inside by the way I wanna have a good time with you it's friday night and I wanna go out I need some air and a place to go so won't you please shut up.
