Beauty's Confusion

Touch me as if you meant it
I burned the letter that you sent
Your presence only amplifies
The hatred i've been feeling

Betray me cause it's all you know
Layers of trust erode when lies are told
It's so difficult to decide
When to get away

I'm leaving
So save your lies for the next letter
I'm gone
I've never felt better

Touch me as if you liked it
I burned the letter that you sent
Your words are fuel for the fire
Your lies always inspire

I'm leaving
So save your lies for your next letter
I'm gone
And i've never felt better
