

Crowd around the city streets
Lonely passersby
Broken sidewalk
Faded chalk outline

Falling
Fell into the past
Forever to be forgotten
Flash
A memory
A stain is all that's left of me

Somewhere
Maybe someday
The movie in your mind will replay
You will want me
You will long for my kiss
What you'll get isn't this
You'll get a memory, only

Cleanse the soul from tragedy
A vision so surreal
Search your mind for an answer
Never to be revealed
Screaming
To reason with
A soul which bleeds rejection
Flash
A memory
A stain is all that's left of me

Somewhere
Maybe someday
The movie in your mind will replay
You will want me
You will long for my kiss
What you'll get isn't this
You'll get a memory, only

And as I leave you in disarray
Forever in the hand of fate

The memory of me will never fade
The streets you love remind you of the pain

A stain is all that's left
