

Walls

Beauty's Confusion

Turn off everything
Turn out the light
Turn off my thoughts for once
Who needs this life
Can't speak
Can't hear
Only the hurt is crystal clear
Need you
Don't hide
When you're near me all is fine

Face in my hands again
These walls
My only friend
Face in my hands again
For all time

Silent room
The light is out
My thoughts are gusts of wind
I'm full of doubt
Don't care, don't know
My only love who doesn't show
And this is why
All I ever do these days is cry

Where are you
Why won't you call
Since you've gone
I talk to the wall

Face in my hands again
These walls
My only friend
Face in my hands again
For all time
