

I Got Time

Bebe Rexha

From snippets:

I just wanna do what I want
I don't wanna, wanna tell you nothing
I just wanna live how I want
I don't wanna hear nothing about it

'Cause I got time, I got time
I'll go and get high if I want to get high
Love who I want
'Cause I got time I got time
'Cause I got time I got time, I got time
Right now I ain't worried 'bout none
Right now I ain't worried 'bout none
Right now I ain't worried 'bout none

I do what I want
I run up the cars
We mix marijuana
With a cup of liquor
All my friends are monsters
I don't need no sponsors
Spend up money now cause I might not be here tomorrow
I mix with designers
I make fashion statements
I'm elevated started on the pavement
Yeah I came from nothing
Turned it into something
Look into the mirror tell myself I'm fucking awesome

I just wanna do what I want
I don't wanna, wanna tell you nothing
I just wanna live how I want
I don't wanna hear nothing about it

'Cause I got time, I got time
I'll go and get high if I want to get high
Love who I want
'Cause I got time I got time
'Cause I got time I got time, I got time
Right now I ain't worried 'bout none
Right now I ain't worried 'bout none
Right now I ain't worried 'bout none

I don't have no patience
I'm not into fake shit
Everybody in my crew we fucking amazing
Yeah i want 100 dozen I'm so irresponsible
Momma said take it easy
But I don't never take it easy

I just wanna do what I want
I don't wanna, wanna tell you nothing
I just wanna live how I want
I don't wanna hear nothing about it

'Cause I got time, I got time

I'll go and get high if I want to get high
Love who I want
'Cause I got time I got time
'Cause I got time I got time, I got time
Right now I ain't worried 'bout none
Right now I ain't worried 'bout none
Right now I ain't worried 'bout none
