

Finding You

Bebo Norman

Everything is alright, everything is so bright
Yeah, the sun is shining beautiful
And everyone is singing, everyone is dreaming
Yeah, the world is so colorful

And You look back at me and
You know it makes me sing

I'm finding You in everything that shines
I'm finding You in between the line
I'm finding You, You open up my eyes everytime
'Cause Your love is so alive

Maybe You could stop time, hanging onto daylight
Doesn't ever have to go away
I could sing a new song, maybe get the word's wrong
But You know just what I wanna say

'Cause when You look at me
You know I still believe

I'm finding You in everything that shines
I'm finding You in between the line
I'm finding You, You open up my eyes everytime
'Cause Your love is so alive

When broken things are healed
And we may fly away
You'll make me sing

Everything is alright, everything is so bright
Yeah, Your love is shining beautiful
And everyone is singing, everyone is dreaming
And I'm feeling so alive

I'm finding You in everything that shines
I'm finding You in between the line
I'm finding You, You open up my eyes everytime
'Cause Your love is so alive
