Now I praise You, Lord of all creation You ordain the sun to rise and fall You scatter the stars across the heavens And You come close enough to hear me call Now I want to say Holy is Your name Let all creation proclaim Holy is Your name Your love is the shelter over my soul And You fill me with the wonder of a child You will heal the humble and the broken Mercy flows like a river running wild Now I want to say Holy is Your name Let all creation proclaim Holy is Your name Holy is Your name On the highest mountain I will lift my heart to the sky From the lowest valley Hear my cry Now I want to say Holy is Your name Let all creation proclaim Holy is Your name Holy is Your name Holy is Your name Now I want to say (On the highest mountain) Holy is Your name (I will lift my heart to the sky) Let all creation proclaim (From the lowest valley) Holy is Your name Holy is Your name Holy is Your name

Holy is Your name
