

Empty

Becca

I'm in one of those moods
Tired of all the feuds
Not really hungry, but I feel like eating
Not really thirsty, but I feel like drinking
Nothing but emptiness, you know the feeling
Nothing but sadness, if you know what I mean
Just doesn't make sense
In a matter of speaking

I'm lost in the light
A glow in the dark
I do what I can to hide, or I just feel small
I'm lost in the light
A glow in the dark
I do what I can to hide, or I just feel small
Ohhh

Why am I so small?

Where's the sign?
All I see are clouds
Just wanna run
Break free from this crowd
Watch as I shrink
When no one's around
Isn't there someone who Understands my pain
Everything's changing
And nothing's the same
I'm feeling empty
And I so I say

I'm lost in the light
A glow in the dark
I do what I can to hide, or I just feel small
I'm lost in the light
A glow in the dark
I do what I can to hide, or I just feel small

I'm lost in the light
A glow in the dark
Why doesn't it feel right
Or nothing at all
I'm lost in the light
A glow in the dark
I do what I can to hide, or I just feel small
Ohhh

Why I am so small?
Why I am so small?
I don't feel anything anymore
