

PUSH

Becca

When my white lies turn black, I'll be gone
I gave you my last chance today
There's no one around to help me move on
I thought it was better this way

Forgive me if I don't make a sound
I gave you everything and now I'm out
With nothing left to give

Push It just slows me down
All I have you took
It never comes back around
You push And I won't let you in
'Cuz I won't ever win
If you push me now

I'm so far gone out here on my own
I was lost in your somewhere
Never thought I'd feel so alone
But you drove me there and now I'm out with nothing left to give

Push It just slows me down
All I have you took
It never comes back around
You push And I won't let you in
'Cuz I won't ever win
If you push me now

I took my head out of the sand
I took my heart out of your hands
Why can't we put this to rest
Cuz there's nothing left

Push It just slows me down
All I have you took
It never comes back around
You push And I won't let you in
'Cuz I won't ever win
If you push me now

You push It just slows me down
All I have you took
It never comes back around
You push And I won't let you in
'Cuz I won't ever win
If you push me now
