

Are You Ready

Beckah Shae

It's like a train through a long tunnel, can you see the light?
Cause it's getting bright.
It's like a mother with child and you can feel the pain tonight,
Cause it's almost time.

And does anybody hear Me? Does anybody see?
Is there anybody willing, to follow Me?
Is there anybody thirsty? Is anyone hungry?
Is anybody dying? Is anyone ready?

Who is ready?
Cause I am looking for...
Who is ready?
Cause I am coming soon.

There's so many people scared, and it seems so unfair,
As the tragedy fills the air.
And we've never ever seen such extreme immorality,
It just makes me wanna scream for mercy!

And does anybody hear Me? Does anybody see?
Is there anybody willing, to follow Me?
Is there anybody thirsty? Is anyone hungry?
Is anybody dying? Is anyone ready?

Who is ready?
Cause I am looking for...
Who is ready?
Cause I am coming soon.

And I'm building my army now,
Get ready, you better get ready!
I'm searching all around,
For those in position.
Never have you seen the things you'll see.
Get ready for the greatest victory!

Who is ready?
Cause I am looking for...
Who is ready?
Cause I am coming soon.

Who is ready?
Cause I am looking for...
Who is ready?
Cause I am coming soon.

Does anybody here Me? Doesn't anybody see?
