

Destiny

Beckah Shae

Today we say goodbye to yesterday.
Today we say hello to tomorrow.
We've got that desperation,
Our ears tuned to revelation,
And we know where we're going.
With our heads held high,
Peeps keep on watching us rise,
And we just keep on going.

So go ahead and dance ridiculous if you want to,
Yeah, raise your hands please, if you must,
cause I'ma join you!
We've got a real reason to get all crazy like this.
So let your freedom fly, If you know,
you ain't gonna miss
Your destiny. Ain't turning back we're going higher.
Your destiny. Fixing our eyes on the eternal.

Love has a way of taking someone,
Somewhere they never should have gone.
We've got determination,
We're making life declarations,
And we know where we're going.
With our eyes on the prize,
We cut our adversary down to size,
And we just keep on going.

So go ahead and dance ridiculous if you want to,
Yeah, raise your hands please, if you must,
cause I'ma join you!
We've got a real reason to get all crazy like this.
So let your freedom fly, If you know,
you ain't gonna miss
Your destiny. Ain't turning back we're going higher.
Your destiny. Fixing our eyes on the eternal.

We're gonna fight, gonna fight the good fight
Till the end, ain't giving up, no!
Been chosen for such a time as this,
And I ain't gonna miss, all I'm living for.
I've surrendered my whole heart,
I've layed down my whole life,
Just for one... moment, just to see Your face,
To tell You that I love You
And hear You say "well done."

Your destiny.
Your destiny.
Your destiny. Ain't turning back we're going higher.
Your destiny. Fixing our eyes on the eternal.
