

Momma

Beckah Shae

(I realize Lord, Your connections are divine Lord, and for mothers, thank you for choosing mine, for, every time I think about how truly blessed I am to have her, my eyes begin to water, so proud to be her daughter, I can't imagine life without her, but I always know no matter, how alone I may feel, I'll make it through, because the greatest hope she gave me was You, so Lord, first and foremost I just wanna say thank you)

Late night lullabies

Eskimo kisses before saying goodbye, prayers before bedtime

Crying out Lord send your angels to never leave her side

And I remember all those things like they're a part of me

And without them momma, I don't know where I'd be

Because you were my inspiration

And I'm filled with admiration

For you, because, you could never give enough

Your selflessness, expressed to me true love

And everything I see in you is a reflection from above

I've watched your ways and I must say that I'm thankful

No one else could ever take your place

You are so beautiful

You sacrificed yourself for me

Believed in me

You mean the world to me

And all I can say is

Momma, I'm grateful

Working two jobs as a single mom

But always right there by my side

Even though you were gone

I know you had some struggles of your own to take

And some poor choices, you did make

But you need to know that can never change who I am

I am who I am because of the love that you gave

And all those times when I was away

You were my warrior

Through all the rough times I saw you pray

My faith grew stronger

And all of those times you told me to sing

From my heart

Songs fell from the stars

And I praise God for who you are
