

I found my other half again
She is to me forgotten innocence
Like a breeze on a summer's day
She makes me stop and say
I believe

I believe in you, believe in me tonight
Reciprocal
And I believe in you believe in me tonight
Reciprocal

Heart beat stop dying on the floor again
Complete shock, this is what you wanted
A wicked price to pay for honesty
Heart beat stop dying on the floor again
Complete shock this is what you wanted
You can't escape from your destiny

I believe in you, believe in me tonight
Reciprocal
And I believe in you, believe in me tonight
Reciprocal

Never really thought I'd ever hold you in my arms again
She held a finger to my lips
Never really thought I'd ever hold you this close
Signed and sealed with a kiss

I believe there's no way to save
The love we shared for so long
And I believe in you believe in me tonight
Reciprocal

I believe, believe in you
I believe, believe in you
Believe in you
