

Had a Lot of Love Last Night

Bee Gees

Ah, I had a lot of love last night
Ah ah, I had a lot of love last night
Ah ah

I've given all my love away and I've been left with none
But can you say that I'm to blame for loving anyone?
I used to think that I was always older then my time
We're all breaking promises, who will cry this time?
We're all breaking promises, who will cry this time?

Ah, I had a lot of love last night
Ah ah, I had a lot of love last night
Ah ah

I'm casting all my dreams hereto, my fish have gone to sea
And fate no longer has the faith to walk ahead of me
I always used to think that I was better then my kind
We're all breaking promises , who will cry this time?
We're all breaking promises , who will cry this time?

Ah, I had a lot of love last night
Ah, I had a lot of love last night
