Miracles Happen

Bee Gees

Miracles happen
We know miracles happen
Miracles happen
We know miracles happen

If we just try
We can put it back together, you and I
And all the bad is blown away
I never said goodbye
It's the writing on the wall, that makes you see
And it's Savior of my soul
And what I say that must be heard
With love in every word, ever

Close your eyes, don't let go
Don't get lost in the fallin' snow
Always out of place alone
Someone you're not sure of
Broken wings, don't arrive
It's a storm but you still survive
Gonna take a miracle
So I go around believing you
Say goodnight, stay forever and
Nobody knows how much
I pray for you at night
And miracles happen
You know miracles happen

And yesterday
There was nothin' in my life worth livin' for
But you were there when I was born
The very strength to carry on
A miracle has come

Hold on tight, call my name
Don't get caught in the midnight rain
(Aah aah)
Part of me believes in you
Someone I'm not sure of
Don't look down, I'll be there
  (Aah aah)
Like the wind in the cold night air
  (Aah aah)
I can see a miracle
And through it all we rise and fall
Tear it apart, stay forever and
I know where Heaven is
Somewhere in between
Miracles happen
We know miracles happen

Red, blue, black and white
And true light, shine on anyone
Two hearts make it right
And all that love can change

Close my eyes, don't let go

(Aah aah)
I'll be lost in the fallin' snow
    (Aah aah)
Always out of place alone
Someone I'm not sure of
    (Gone away)
Don't look down, I'll be there
    (Eh eh)
Like the wind in the cold night air
I can see a miracle
And through it all we rise and fall
Tear it apart and stay forever
I know where Heaven is
Yeah I know
Somewhere in between

(Oh)
    (Miracles)
Hold on tight, call my name
Don't get caught in the midnight rain
Part of me believes in you
Someone I'm not sure of
Don't look down, I'll be there
Like the wind in the cold night air
(Oh, oh)
I can see a miracle

(Oh)
Close my eyes, don't let go
I'll be lost in the fallin' snow
Always out of place alone
