Saw a New Morning

All of a sudden I saw a new morning I'm locked up I wanna be free Out in the courtyard and over the wall then My friends are waiting for me

Sixteen people are waiting to get me Hoping to take me outside

I hear the sound of the snub nose behind me I went along for the ride

Wind in my face and my bones they are aching My soul must weather the storm I must run till my back it is breaking Desperately I must keep on

Sixteen people are waiting to get me Hoping to take me outside

I hear the sound of the snub nose behind me I went along for the ride

All of a sudden I saw a new morning I went along for the ride

All of a sudden I saw a new morning All of a sudden I saw a new morning All of a sudden I saw a new morning

I saw a new morning I saw a new morning I saw a new morning ...
