

Pitch-Black Universe

Before the Dawn

I have dreamed of a universe
A pitch-black dimension
Oblivion thru absence of the light

In my deepest slumber
Reveries profound
Darkness eternal around

Sun was torn asunder
Light has been undone
In starless sky with no moon to rise the tide

I have seen a parallel
A void like dimension
Nothingness beyond compare

In that dead cold
Orbit of a black hole
I am the spark
A birth of star

In my deepest slumber
Reveries profound
Darkness eternal around

Sun was torn asunder
Light has been undone
In starless sky with no moon to rise the tide
