City In A Snow Globe

Before Their Eyes

I never thought the day would come When we'd have to say goodbye But now the time has come As I wipe the tears from my eyes

Too tired of these lonely nights I've lost everything That meant anything You're still ringing in my ears

And in my dreams I've tried running but I can't Escape from you in my memories

It's what kills me slowly You kill me slowly with the way I know you won't come back And I regret everything I said

The city is so cold tonight It's exactly what I feel inside I only wish I could ask for One more chance

It's what kills me slowly You kill me slowly with the way I know you won't come back And I regret everything I said

The city is so cold tonight It's exactly what I feel inside

It's what kills me slowly You kill me slowly with the way I know you won't come back And I regret everything I said
