

Dream

Before Their Eyes

I feel the light is fading
Our time is dissipating
I need to find my way to you
Will someone tell me what's the truth?

And when the storm is coming
We're scared but we're not running
You're all I need to pull me through

I've got a feeling I'm chasing a dream
I feel so far, am I even close? (am I even close)
I've got a feeling that I'm not gonna find you (whoa, oh, oh)
And that's what scares me the most (whoa, oh, oh)

If I reach out to you
Can you feel me too
I've always wanted this
But somehow I can't see it true

And now it's dark and shady
My mind is hazing crazy
They say I'm insane, but you
(Always seem to pull me through)

I've got a feeling I'm chasing a dream
I feel so far, am I even close? (am I even close)
I've got a feeling that I'm not gonna find you (whoa, oh, oh)
And that's what scares me the most (whoa, oh, oh)

Well they say I'm crazy
That she's chasing you
I need the feeling
You always seem to pull me through

I need to find my way to you

I've got a feeling I'm chasing a dream
I feel so far, am I even close? (am I even close)
I've got a feeling that I'm not gonna find you (whoa, oh, oh)
And that's what scares me the most (whoa, oh, oh)
