

Revival

Before Their Eyes

We're not who you say we are
We are everything that you can handle
You've done it once when will this end?
Broken in pieces, this life's in shambles
Damaged from the start your dreams are dead

Oh, no (oh, no)
You've pushed me to the edge again (again)
And now you're barely breathing, barely breathing
Oh, no (oh, no)
Their truth is torn apart, when will this end
You need revival regression

I can't stand the way
You take the show
'Cause the questions
No repercussions for your actions
You don't deserve our trust
Second chances are not Something I have lived for
I am done with this
I am done with you
I am done with you!

Oh, no (oh, no)
You've pushed me to the edge again (again)
And now you're barely breathing, barely breathing
Oh, no (oh, no)
Their truth is torn apart, when will this end
You need revival regression

Your dreams are dead yeah,
They've been damaged from the start (damaged from the start)
I'll sing it one more time
You've gotta show some heart
You're spreading lies
You can't disguise them now (disguise them now)
We found you out, it's endless
You need revival

(Oh)
Now you're barely breathing
(Oh)
Let the struggle sink in

Oh, no (oh, no)
You've pushed me to the edge again (again)
And now you're barely breathing, barely breathing
Oh, no (oh, no)
Their truth is torn apart, when will this end
You need revival regression
