Surrender

Before Their Eyes

We just can't seem to find our way We are the broken We are the broken (Whoa, oh, oh) (Whoa, oh, oh) We've gone off course Wash off this poison, we're done wishing Follow our hearts But they've been beating different patterns If we surrender Have we lost our inner battles Bend back and forth Find a way out (Oh, oh, oh) (We are the broken) (Oh, oh, oh) (You are the chosen) We just can't seem to find our way We are the broken We are the broken Help us to find a better way We are the broken You are the chosen Won't you please show us the way back home When I step forward Why does it feel like two steps back We're always sinking Seems so cold it's never cracked I think we lost it All hope we've had locked within The path we've chosen Leads us to a bitter end (Oh, oh, oh) (Leads us to a bitter end) (Bitter end) (Oh, oh, ooh) (The path we've chosen) We just can't seem to find our way We are the broken We are the broken Help us to find a better way We are the broken You are the chosen Won't you please show us the way back home We've walked the bridge and This is to call you out Your fight is now Show us the way out
