

You Gave Me Life

beFour

did i ever ever tell you what you really mean to me when we're left and cry together always sweet as harmony so when every single tear drops and in every little smile lies the truth of what we're feeling when we're walking side by side in my heart there is a place for you it's the meaning ever last so truth you gave me life you gave me love you show me heaven not above you gave me wings and let me fly so high you gave me help you gave me hope you told me yes you told me no we're even more than only you and i when we were such little children in our small little tiny world you were everything we needed as those little boys and girls you were kings and queens so lovely and you gave that helping hand when you read a book at bad time and never made it till the end never never be another you it's the meaning ever last the truth you gave me life you gave me love

you gave me life you gave me love
you gave me life you gave me love
you told me yes you told me no
you and i
