

From Hornedlands to Lindisfarne

Behemoth

They came from the cold north
Carried on the wings of waves
No one knows the cult
Bloody acts were only a legend...
Eternal hate and horned sodomy
Came to the lands of virgin's goodness

Moonless night showed me their return
I saw drakkars between the silence, in the dream
When the witches called the spirits from forest
From hornedlands to lindisfarne...

Lords of the fjord, turned daylight
Into december frost, fathers of ice
Proclaimed the new century, marked the paths
Which i follow now, enter the forest
Like you open your veins
In the night of the pagan union

Moonless night ... (see above)

Witches among the night, lead me to the horned moon
I entered my evil soul to fortify my frosty hate
Freezing breath of the blackheart fill the interior
Pagan wings rise me over the evil palace

Massacre will be the beginning of iron holocaust
Evil enters the skies for the return of sodomy
Black snow covers the horde of christ
Winterwinds destroy jehova's palace

Ancient spirits proclaimed the return
Coldnights await like hungry wolves
The powers join among the mountains
The oaks sing funeral songs of frost
I drink the blood for all pagan souls
