

Let The Horror And Chaos Come

Behexen

World of plagues
Nest of disgusting filth
To be taken to ruin and damnation
All created must be raped

Into the night we whisper a prayer A black spell full of hate full of horror and chaos World will perish in flames

Piece by piece your world will collapse filling with emptiness Slipping to the end of your poor life Slowly but certainly

When the priests rape your children and fathers kill their families We stand behind you in the shadow of our Lord breathing your agony

Let the horror and chaos come
Let it flow freely through me, like a black rapid stream full of your immense hatred
