Beirut

Certainly I do recall
Staring down sunrise to sun fall
Don't forget why
Don't forget waiting for it all

We were then old
Telling the sickness to take hold

I had to know
I had to know
Where you had gone

I had to know
I had to know
Where you had gone

I had to know
I had to know
Where you had gone
