Everything should be fine
You'll find things tend to stand in line
It's but a link in time
But I'm sure you'll let me try

Oh, set it on fire
So long we're waiting on by

Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind
You loved the times, I sang
Your loss was mine
Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind
You loved the times, I sang
Your loss was mine

In your mind' eye
In your mmm
In your mind's eye
In your mmm
In your mind's eye
In your mmm
In your mind's eye
In your mmm

Oh, set it on fire
So long we're waiting on by

Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind
You loved the times
I sang your loss was mine
Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind
You loved the times
I sang your loss was mine
