

Goshen

Beirut

You're on in five
It's time you rise
Or fade

They've gone before
Stood by your door
All day

For what it's worth
Defend your kind
From shame

The lights are down
Go on inside
They've paid

You're the face in stone
Through the land I own

You never found it home
You're not the girl I used to know

What would you hide from such a glow
If I had only told you so

You're on in five
It's time you rise
Or fade

They've gone before
Stood by your door
All day

But you never found it home
A Fair price I'd pay to be alone
What would you hide from such a glory [?]
If I had only told you so
