

Didn't You Know It ?

Bel Canto

Hey, sibling souls, are you out there?
Children of the earth, where are we going from here?
'Cause it hurts the young to live in the open with so much love to give but too little to spare Yeah, yeah, yeah, the moves me make, the moves we make We stumble and we hesitate
Yeah, yeah, yeah, the moves we make, the moves we make
She said I was not to worry Hadn't seen her since, but was totally convinced Till I heard them say; "Didn't you know it? Mary, poor child, w as alone
when she died"
Yeah, yeah, yeah, the moves we make, the moves we make: The pro mises we disengage
Yeah, yeah, yeah, the moves we make, the moves we make
Time for the unfree
Time to rejuvenate the elderly
Time for the unfree
Time to lend a hand
Time to lend a hand
Time to make a stand
So many things I don't want to know Told a freind one day but he says I'm o.k.
'Cause we're born within the xgeberation; virtually real with a planet to heal
Yeah, yeah, yeah, the moves we make, the moves we make: We fumb le and we hesitate
Yeah, yeah, yeah, the moves we make, the moves we make
Time for the unseen
Time to eliminate tomorrow's fears
Time for the unseen
Time to make a stand
Do you follow me? No?
Well, it's time to move on and to set our wills free Fantasy - it's here in me
