

Es De Verdad

Belinda

Oh...oh...oh...

I want to sleep, not to madrugar They already are but of the ten, to wake up To begin with illusion To live in the end, to plan something ideal Sometimes I want to shout and to be able to fly... ay... ay... ay

Choir: To live and to be as I want to live with the opened heart, they see and you will understand everything what I feel I always look for love really

Uuooo....ye....ye....yea

In the city he is all equal one I do not see between somewhat special people my heart wants to find somebody sincere one that makes me dream

Sometimes I want to shout, and to be able to fly... ye... ye... yea

To wake up and to shout To feel in my the life To risk and to bet
To feel adrenalin

I must accept My normal life But I want something but, soon she arrived

To live and to be as I want to live with the opened heart, they see and you will understand everything what I feel my love is true
