

If Tonight

Bella Morte

So long ago, the days when we first met
Two years have passed, so much has changed around us
In my life, you are a ray of light
Tonight if I should die hold my heart within your eyes
I still recall your face from so long ago
Two voices spoke of hope from a distant place
And still this day your eyes flow like the sea
When you are lost I will be there waiting for you