

Neverland

Bella Morte

Don't lie awake
Restless, cold
Drown yourself
Into the deep Neverland
Drown yourself
Just close your eyes, silently
See the gleam of sand of solace

Rise
Fall before the Fey goodnight
One last look into the eyes
Tarry for you'll never die
For now and ever with us

Nocturna's call throughout time
And before
Through ancient seas and dark lands
Long before
Engulfing dreams, enthralling
The collapsing skies engraved

Call
Fall before the Fey goodnight
One last look into the eyes
Tarry for you'll never die
For now and ever with us
Rise

Into the night where lies
Dance with the darkest dreams
And cries fall before this
Her voice, all before this sleeps in me
Sleeps in me, Delirium enchants me
Lie with me
To die
