I Don't Love Anyone

Belle and Sebastian

I don't love anyone You're not listening You're playing with something You're playing with yourself I don't love anyone You're not listening even now You're playing with someone You're playing with someone else And if there's one thing that I learned when I was still a child It's to take a hiding I don't love anything Not even Christmas Especially not that I don't love anything No, I don't love anyone Well maybe my sister Maybe my baby brother too, yeah I don't love anyone But if there's one thing that I learned when I was still a child It's to take a hiding If there's one thing that I learned when I was still a child It's to be alone If there's one thing that I learned when I was still a child It's to take a hiding Out in the street today The kids are out playing, having fun Well I pass them by I'm not a kid, no I don't love anyone I met a man today He told me something pretty strange There's always somebody saying something He said, the world is as soft as lace. But I don't love anyone If there's one thing that I learned when I was still a child It's to take a hiding
