Hello world, this is me. Life should be, fun for everyone.

Every now and then I'm insecure, let me show you life can be so pure Seize the day, wear a big, happy smile on your face. On every life a little rain will fall, that won't change my attitude at all You are you, I am me, we'll be free.

Hello World, this is me, Life should be, fun for everyone Hello World, come and see, Life should be, fun for everyone

Life is easy if you wear a smile
Just be yourself, don't ever change your style.
I like you, you like me,
Let's have fun, be happy

Look into my eyes and tell me straight For you, I'll make the whole world wait Let me know, if it's so, let it show
