

Late Train

Belleruche

Just got to give it time
And then it gets easier
Like the truth
Always making things clearer
Well you got to give it time
And then it gets easier
Like the truth
When it comes to you
Always making things clearer
Boy you can't stop her from running
If she's not ready to settle
If she's not ready to settle down
If she doesn't want to keep you
Let her go there's no use in
There's no use in waiting around
Come now well, come pick up forgive her
She wasn't out to hurt you
Just wasn't meant to be this time
Well you got to give it time
And it's gonna get easier
Like the truth
Always making things clearer
Well you got to give it time
And it's gonna get easier
Like the truth
When it comes to you
Always making things clearer
I don't have any answers
If you're looking at me for them
There are some things that can't be defined
Let it alone try to release her
It's a waste of time to be bitter
I'll distract you for now if that helps you out
My friend you're never alone
We've all been and we've all seen it
There isn't a soul that can't understand
Well you got to give it time
And then it gets easier
Like the truth
Always making things clearer
Well you got to give it time
And it's gonna get easier
Like the truth
When it comes to you
Always making things clearer
Come now pick up forgive her
She wasn't out to hurt you
Just wasn't meant to be this time round
Quit now or you'll drive herself crazy
Torture your poor heart over
The should've could've maybe's racing through your mind
Harsh words from one friend to another
They're just meant to keep you together
And keep your heart out of the lost and found
Well you got to give it time
And it's gonna get easier
When the truth, when it comes to you

Always making things clearer
Well you got to give it time
And it's gonna get easier
Oh like the truth, when it comes to you
Always making things clearer
Like the truth, when it comes to you
Always making things true
When it comes to you
Always making things true
When it comes to you
Always making things clearer
Always making things clearer