

Enemy Mine

Beloved Enemy

nowhere to go to, I'm better of dead the fiend that I'm fighting lives in my head nowhere to turn to, no backdoor to flee he is the demon inside of me

I can feel you
I am walking the line
I can feel you
you're my enemy
I can feel you
I am walking the line
I can feel you
you're my enemy mine he lives inside of me taking control he is the dark half, deep in my soul he is the dark man, he's so adamant he is a part of me till the end so I'm falling down, walking the line, no escape now falling down, walking the line, my enemy mine my enemy mine

back up, back up, beloved enemy back up, back up and fxxx off back up, back up unless you wanna be dead
back up, back up, beloved enemy back up, back up and drop dead I know, I know, you wanna kill me I kill you instead

eat shit
I kill you instead

welcome to Endsville where all hope dies we are trapped inside of me

falling down, walking the line, my enemy mine
I can feel you
I am walking the line
I can feel you
you're my enemy...
