And I don't understand what your fighting against
You made that choice like I said it before
Look at yourself I can't take anymore

Wait... I can't see you
Where do you wanna
Where do you wanna
Go today, Go away
'Cause I can barely look at you this way
And you know it
Where do you wanna
Where do you wanna
Go today, Go away
Your substance problem is more that I can say

My intent accusations directed at you
Take my advice your direction is gone
Look in your mind cause it's clouded and hazed
Trying to bring someone back from a daze

Wait... I can't see you
Where do you wanna
Where do you wanna
Go today, Go away
'Cause I can barely look at you this way
And you know it
Where do you wanna
Where do you wanna
Go today, Go away
Your substance problem is more that i can say

DON'T TRY TO SPEAK YOUR MIND 'CAUSE NO ONE ELSE IS LISTENING!
