Malpractice

Belvedere

Tell me doctor why you look so sad

Tell something is the news that bad i'll never see

An apology

And I can't believe the problems facing me

An apology

And I can't believe the problems facing me

I've tried to ignore my pride close my eyes

An explanation what went wrong I know i'll never see

An apology

And I can't believe the problems facing me

An apology

And I can't believe the problems facing me

I've tried to ignore my pride close my eyes
