

Gone

Ben Folds Five

Ooh ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh ooh

I thought I'd write
I thought I'd let you know.
That the year since you've been gone
I've finally let you go
And I hope you find some time to drop a note
But if you won't
Then you won't
And I will consider you gone.

I know that you went straight to someone else
While I worked through all this shit here by myself.
And I think that you should spend some time alone
But if you won't
Then you won't
Then I will
Then I will consider you gone.

I'll wake up in the night
all alone, and that's all right
the chemicals are wearin' off
just you've gone

The days go on, the lights go off and on
And nothing really matters when you're gone
If you think that you feel nothin' at all
If you don't
Then you don't
If you won't
If you won't
Then I will...then I will...Yea I will Consider you gone.
